

Republican Women of Sheridan County Scholarship Award (An Annual Award of $1000)

Mission:

- The Republican Women of Sheridan County (RWSC) seeks to help women to pursue further education after high school.
- RWSC wishes to support women with a hand up and firmly believes that education is essential to reaching one's full potential.
- The scholarship is intended to provide funding for post high school education or training for women to obtain gainful employment and self-sufficiency.

Qualifications:

The annual scholarship award is intended to provide funds to a Republican woman who plans to obtain a post high school education, including an undergraduate or graduate program at a community college, university, vocational or trade school. NOTE: In Wyoming a seventeen years-old can register to vote as long as they will be eighteen at the time of the next general election.

Basic scholarship criteria:

- Female age 17 years or older
- High school senior, diploma or GED
- Registered Republican (see above note)
- Resident of Sheridan County
- Planned attendance to community college, university, vocational or trade school

Submission Requirements:

- A completed RWSC Scholarship Application form
- Three (3) letters of recommendation from adult, non-family members (Examples: former classroom instructor, employer, pastor or church reference, family friend)
- Copy of high school or college transcript or proof of GED
- A one page typed essay stating why the applicant should be considered for the scholarship

Funding Cycle Deadlines:
